1. [] The Director accompanied by Messrs. Cline and Helms met again with the Stennis Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee at 9:30 for approximately an hour and a half. John S. Warner was not present but a transcript was taken.
2. [] Boyd Crawford telephoned stating that Chairman Morgan of the House Foreign Affairs Committee wanted to set up a meeting with the Director and suggested the 19th of February. I indicated to Crawford that this date looked all right but that I would advise further.
3. [] After discussion with the Director, firm arrangements were made with Senator Keating's office for a meeting with the Senator at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. The Senator's office was later advised that Mr. McCone would be accompanied by John S. Warner with an indication that the Director desired a few notes taken.
4. [] Requested the Office of Security to provide a man to cover the door at Senate Preparedness Subcommittee during the testimony by the Director and Agency officials this morning.
5. [] Discussed with Mrs. Anderson, Secretary to Senator Kenneth B. Keating, the possibility of a meeting between the Director and Senator Keating on Friday, 8 February at 2:30. The possibility of a meeting on Thursday was frustrated by Senator Keating's desire to meet with the Director for at least an hour which was not possible today.
6. [] Received from Mrs. Meadows, in the office of Representative August E. Johansen, a personnel outline of []
7. [] Received from Bob Michaels a series of "rough" questions for answer back to the Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations.
